ADDRESS: San Jose Resident

DETAILS:

On 12-16-06 at 6:24PM, the victim was driving in downtown San Jose with his wife when he became involved in a "road rage" incident with another driver. When the suspect drove too close to the victim's car, the victim honked his horn, which upset the suspect. The two men then gestured at one another before moving on. As the two drivers pulled away from a downtown hotel, the suspect got out of his car and approached the victim on foot. The victim rolled down his window to speak to the suspect and the suspect then punched the victim repeatedly through the open car window. The victim sustained facial fractures that required plastic surgery.
