MEDIA ADVISORY

$5,000 reward offered in the Jorge Luis Trujillo Homicide case of January 25th, 2006

DETAILS:

On 01-25-06 at approximately 7:45PM, a homicide occurred on South 22nd Street at San Fernando Street. Jorge Luis Trujillo was walking on South 22nd Street when he was accosted by several subjects. They beat him then fled the area. The victim later died from injuries sustained in that attack. Anyone with information on this case is urged to contact Sergeant Brian Ferrante or Detective Sean Pritchard of the San Jose Police Department Homicide Unit at (408) 277-5283.

In a recent letter to Sergeant Ferrante, Kim Petersen, Executive Director of The Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation wrote:

“Carole and Juli Sund and Silvina Pelosso were the three women sightseers who were missing and later found murdered near Yosemite National Park in February of 1999. While they were missing, Carole Sund’s parents, Francis and Carole Carrington, at the request of the FBI, posted rewards both for their safe return and for information leading to the whereabouts of their rental car. The Carringtons believe that the posting of these rewards and the media attention they received, contributed to the car being located and gave them the first break in their case. They were thankful that they had the financial means to offer these rewards and it is because of this that they have started The Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation. This foundation was established to assist families such as the family of Jorge Trujillo who are in similar circumstances as the Carrington’s in that Jorge is a victim of homicide.”

PRESS OFFICER BRIEFED BY UNIT COMMANDER (CIRCLE) YES NO

The Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation is offering a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the death of Jorge Trujillo. We know reward money can make a difference because the foundation's reward money has already assisted in the apprehension of thirty-one murder suspects, one child molester/attempted murderer, one kidnapper/child molester and helped to locate nine missing persons. We currently have suspects in custody in eight states. Of the twenty-nine suspects in custody, eight murderers and one child molester/attempted murderer have been convicted or plead guilty as charged. To date the Foundation has paid a total of $232,500 in rewards to citizens who did the right thing by coming forward and sharing the information they had regarding these cases. We all have a responsibility to do our part to help make our community a safe place. So, please if you know anything about this case, call SERGEANT BRIAN FERRANTE OF THE SAN JOSE POLICE DEPARTMENT. THANK YOU.**

San Jose Police Chief Rob Davis adds, “I would like to pass along my sincere thanks to The Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation for establishing this reward fund in Mr. Trujillo’s name. It has been our experience that reward funds have been the catalyst to increased interest and investigative leads in cases like that of Mr. Trujillo. We hope that will be the case here. I strongly urge anyone with information to contact our investigators.”
