Silicon Valley Internet Crimes Against Children Conference
San Jose Convention Center
150 West San Carlos St.
Wednesday June 1, 2005 to Friday June 3, 2005

The San Jose Police Department is proud to present its second annual Silicon Valley Internet Crimes Against Children Conference, which will be held at the San Jose Convention Center, June 1-3, 2005. The conference will provide training not only to law enforcement personnel from throughout the country but will also include training for Prosecutors, Child Welfare Professionals and Educators. Attendees will utilize state-of-the-art mobile computer labs and a wide variety of classroom lectures to allow investigators to combat the growing problem of Internet-facilitated sexual exploitation of children. Classes of particular interest are the Scott Peterson case study; Interview and Interrogation of Child Sexual Predators; Child Sexual Assault Survivor Discussion Panel; Adobe PhotoShop Presentations and eBay/PayPal investigations.

The San Jose Police Department would like to extend our deepest gratitude to all of our corporate sponsors whose generous donations allowed the San Jose Police Department to waive all registration fees for attendees.

The San Jose Police Department is the lead agency for the federally funded Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force with part of our mission providing training and technical assistance for 11 Bay Area counties and the 135 law enforcement agencies within those counties. For more information on the Silicon Valley Internet Crimes against Children Task Force, see our web site at www.svicac.org.

The conference is open to the media. Media representatives may check in on the second floor concourse, room D, for a class schedule.
